Iris

2024

Watercolor, ink on paper

The purpose of my watercolor florals is the impression of flowers, their movement, and vitality. Realism gives way to watching how water moves the paint on the paper. The iris is a noble flower and very dramatic. The iris's cycle of emerging, blooming, dying, and reemerging represents the transformative power of the divine. It is the perfect flower to represent a new seasonal menu at NUE, and especially the Fall, which is a time for harvest and abundance.
